CAG NEWS

January-August, 2023

CAG'S Note

In every country, the effective management of public finances and the transparent use of taxpayers' money are of utmost importance. In the realm of public financial management, the Comptroller and Auditor General (CAG) of Bangladesh holds a pivotal role as the supreme audit institution (SAI) responsible for ensuring integrity, transparency and accountability of the public financial affairs. Empowered by its constitutional mandate and legal authority, the CAG serves as watchdog and guardian of the public funds, independently scrutinizing the financial operations of the government, and ensuring that public resources are used efficiently, effectively and in compliance with the laws, rules and regulations.

Following the promulgation of Government Auditing Standards of Bangladesh (GASB), SAI Bangladesh has already issued comprehensive guidelines on Performance Audit. The Performance Audit Guidelines has been prepared to enable the auditors to conduct performance audit of high quality, consistent with the Government Auditing Standards of Bangladesh, the Code of Ethics and the Quality Control System of the OCAG. The guidelines set out the processes and procedures for auditors to plan, execute and report on performance audit.

Numerous ground-breaking efforts were successfully carried out in the office of the Controller General of Accounts. In this regard, One-Stop Service Cells have been established in all pay and accounting offices across the country to provide courteous and prompt services to all service recipients, especially for the respected pensioners. Besides, CGA office leveraged the use of Magnetic Ink Character Recognition (MICR) cheques for better cash management system of government. It is noteworthy that digital automation in terms of Debt Deposit Remittance (DDR) record, GPF, Pension and government fund is well underway. As a result of these initiatives, the complete digitization of the General Provident Fund for over one million public servants has been made possible.

In order to implement the Public Financial Management (PFM) action plan of the Defense Finance Department (DFD), the Office of the Controller General Defence Finance is endeavouring in the automation of Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) coverage, Budget Authorization, Cheque Management System and proper integration of DFD with iBAS++ etc. Additional Director General (Finance), Bangladesh Railway has also made a number of measures to capitalize on the advantages of sound Public Financial Management.

Ten PAC meetings were held from January 2023 to August 2023. Three hundred and eighty one audit observations were discussed during the period. Besides, Forty-six audit reports including one performance audit report, two financial audit reports as well as forty-three compliance audit reports have already been submitted to the honorable President.

During the aforementioned time period, a significant number of OCAG officials took part in a variety of international training programs and collaborations on various aspects of public financial management, which undoubtedly improved exposure to best practices, advanced audit methodologies, and emerging trends in public financial management.

This publication serves as a testament to the dedication and hard work of our officials, whose relentless efforts have shaped our successes. Together, let us look ahead with hope, enthusiasm, and a renewed sense of purpose as we continue to build a brighter future.

An exclusive commemorative discussion program with the presence of reform luminaries at FIMA

The event provided an excellent platform for the panel discussants to share their experience and challenges they faced in regard to initiating and propelling reforms in public financial management field throughout nineties. The event styled Bangladesher Arthik Babosthapon Sangskerer Gotidhara (The Course of Reforms of Financial Management in Bangladesh) turned into a lively conversation amongst the panellists. The conversations revealed many events, memories, challenges surrounding PFM reforms they faced. Starting from the CORBEC (Committee on Reforms in Budgeting and Expenditure Control) in 1989 they described important milestones achieved later on down the path.

Departmental Training for AAGs

Departmental Training for AAG (Assistant Accountant General) Probationers is one of the flagship training courses offered by FIMA. 44 Assistant Accountant Generals (AAGs) belonging to 40th batch who joined on 05th December 2022 are receiving the year-long departmental training. Now they are undergoing six-month long foundational training at Bangladesh Public Administration Training Centre (BPATC) at Savar. Upon their return on 01st October 2023 the departmental training at FIMA will resume. The training is expected to be completed by May 2024.

Training on Public Procurement

Bangladesh spends annually about one-third of its national budget on public procurement. It is, therefore, one of the most significant areas of focus in public audit engagement. Consequently, FIMA has continued like previous year imparting training in this regard. Throughout January to June 2023, FIMA has conducted a total of 08 training courses on public procurement of 5 days each for different levels of officials separately which drew 208 officials.

Training on Public Procurement for Grade-6 Officers (Batch-1)
Duration : 04 to 08 June 2023

The main focus of the training was on different important aspects of public procurement namely preparation of tender documents (works, goods and services), tender submission, evaluation, award of contract, contract management including handling of complaints and appeals and use of e-GP.

Training on e-Audit Module in e-GP System

In a new development, the Central Procurement Technical Unit (CPTU) of IMED (Implementation Monitoring and Evaluation Division), Ministry of Planning has added an e-audit module in the e-GP system for the purpose of procurement audit for the Office of the Comptroller and Auditor General (OCAG) of Bangladesh and subordinate audit directorates. The OCAG and all audit directorates have been given access to all documents of e-Tendering and e-CMS modules kept in e-GP system.

Under this circumstance, FIMA has organized trainings on e-tendering, e-CMS modules in e-GP system at its extended campus at Segunbagicha Audit Complex so that participants can acquire proper knowledge on the system to conduct or supervise procurement audit activities properly. Giving due importance to the need of having hands-on knowledge on AMMS (Audit Management and Monitoring Software)-2 software as well on the part of each and every person involved in audit engagement, FIMA has combined these two important phenomena, e-GP module and AMMS-2 in one specially designed 2-day long training course.

The inauguration ceremony was chaired by Abul Kalam Azad, Director General of FIMA.

Continuous Professional Development (CPD) Course

The importance of continuous professional development of the human resources of any organization can't be overemphasized in an evolving context where change is the constant phenomenon.

Realizing the importance of comprehensive CPD training program, the OCAG has developed CPD training course curriculum for the officials of different levels, and the CPD training based on this curriculum has become one of the flagship training courses of FIMA. Accordingly, FIMA from January to June 2023 has delivered 8-day CPD training for Audit and Accounts Officers, Batch-3 and 4 which drew 74 officials in total for the training.

Auditor's Basic Course: A Course for the Beginners

Auditors of the Audit and Accounts Department play a key role in rendering services to the wide range of stakeholders. The auditors work at the forefront and meet the differing expectations of their clients. The overall quality of service delivery of the department largely hinges on their capacity and professionalism. Bearing it in mind, the OCAG has developed a course curriculum for the auditors as part of the overall CPD Program to make the auditors competent to deliver quality services.

In light of this course curriculum, FIMA is delivering a course of 20 working days for the newly recruited auditors. Under this scheme, all the new entrants recruited recently in OCAG and CGDF and a portion of the CGA have received the training. Rest of the auditors belonging to CGA have been given this training through January to June 2023.

Basic Course for Junior Auditor

FIMA always tries its best to prepare newly recruited staff in the Audit and Accounts Department towards the right path down their career as well as instil right kind of motivation and approach in terms of public service delivery they are expected to provide. As part of this, FIMA has introduced 10-day Junior Auditors' Basic Training course for the newly recruited Junior Auditors.

All new entrants will be provided with this basic training in required number of batches consisting of approximately 40 persons each. This program was started on 21st May 2023, and 38 participants in one batch has received training till June 2023.

International Mother Language Day observed

The International Mother Language Day was observed with due solemnity on 21st February 2023 at FIMA campus. The observance was marked by placing floral wreath at the altar of the Shaheed Minar at FIMA premises erected in memory of the language martyrs.
